Presentations and Proclamations:

Recognition of Gibbon Volunteer Fire Department and Chief Rick Brown—The Mayor presented the department with a Recognition of Extraordinary service proclamation. There were 9 members present.
IN RECOGNITION OF THE EXTRAORDINARY SERVICE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE GIBBON VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

WHEREAS:—The City of Gibbon experienced unprecedented flooding on March 14, 2019, which had an extreme adverse effect on the north and east sections of our community; and

WHEREAS:—Gibbon's volunteer firefighters provided round the clock coverage and assistance to those affected through evacuation, emergency services and cleanup efforts; and

WHEREAS:—The City of Gibbon once again was inundated with flood waters on July 10, 2019, with even more devastating effects; and

WHEREAS:—Gibbon's volunteer firefighters were on call immediately to assist with proactive measures such as sand bagging and evacuations; and

WHEREAS:—In addition to the flood relief, Gibbon's volunteer firefighters continued to protect the life and property of our citizens through fire response and medical emergencies; now

THEREFORE:—I, Deborah VanMatre, Mayor of the City of Gibbon, do hereby recognize the MEMBERS OF THE GIBBON VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT for their extraordinary efforts and dedication to our community and call upon our citizens to pay special tribute to the volunteer firefighters that contribute to the safety and well-being of our city.

DULY PROCLAIMED this 19th day of August 2019.

Chief Rick Brown was also presented a Certificate of Appreciation for outstanding leadership and service provided to the Citizens of Gibbon and to the Members of the Gibbon Volunteer Fire Department during the 2019 March and July flood events and recovery efforts.

Buffalo County Sheriff Department—Contract Law Enforcement: Captain Anderson also thanked the Fire Department for their efforts during the flooding and their help during the recent domestic violence homicide. He spoke briefly about the incident as it is an ongoing investigation. They had assistance from GVFD, Shelton police, State Patrol and Buffalo County Investigators with the call. School has started and there will be increased patrol in that area and they will be setting the speed trailer up near the school. Captain Anderson asked if there would be a possibility of storing the speed trailer in Gibbon so it can be utilized in the eastern part of the county. He will get with Chris to discuss further.

Mayor Report—Deb VanMatre: The Mayor touched base on several topics. The vacancy on the Housing Agency Board, which governs Colony Acres is still open.

Following up on the flooding, she will be meeting with some of the citizens that were affected and she is also setting up a meeting with representatives from Kearney, Buffalo County and the Central Platte NRD to discuss options and responsibilities. The Army Corps of Engineers has a meeting scheduled for August 22 in regard to the Wood River watershed from Gibbon to Grand Island.

The League of Nebraska Municipalities Conference is September 18-20. There is also a League Association of Risk Management member meeting on September 18. Progress is being made in settling the dispute in regard to the duly-elected board of the association.

The Keno election will take place on October 15 according to the County Election Commissioner. Ballots will be mailed between September 23 and October 4, and must be returned by 5:00 p.m. on October 15. Information on the Keno election will be included in the September utility bill mailing. Discussions continue on the fire hall/city hall project.

The Council will need to meet in the next couple weeks for a budget workshop and budget hearings, with the dates yet to be determined.

City Administrator Report—Chris Rector: Chris gave an update on the Wastewater Treatment Plant lagoon project. The west bank of the lagoon will be done and the cover people will be here next week to start on that part of the project.

The parks department received a $25,000.00 donation from Loren Shiers to go towards the Legion ballfields. We will be building up the fields.

The pool closed August 11 and had no major issues this season. Jacob Tracey will remain on until fall.

City Treasurer Report—Tonniges & Associates: Ashley went over the monthly financials for June. They are still working on July totals. They will be working on the budget. This will be Ashley's last report as she has taken a different position. Randy Bienhoff will now be working with the city.
